

Lego Principle #2 – 5 Rules for Kid Connections

God created us for connection and He has specific ways He wants us to do it. Here are five rules for kid connection.

Rule #1 Be humble

Humble is just a fancy word for not thinking you're all that. God doesn't want us to brag about ourselves. That's not how Jesus acted and it's not the way we should act either.

Rule #2 Don't be selfish

No one likes to hang around selfish people so don't be selfish.

Rule #3 Always forgive

People are going to mess up and your feelings will get hurt. You have to choose to forgive and be willing to give people a second chance.

Rule #4 Tell the truth

No one likes to hang around with liars. You should always tell the truth otherwise no one will believe anything you say.

Rule #5 Stay connected to Jesus

The most important connection we can ever have is with Jesus! He helps us to connect better with our friends because He models connection perfectly for us.

Memory Verse
