LESSON OVERVIEW

Big Idea: God gives us strength to exercise self control
Key Question: How do we train ourselves in godliness?
Memory Verse: Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better... 1 Timothy 4:8

Overview: Samson is famous for his long hair and his great strength. But Samson’s life was filled with ups and downs because it took him a long time to learn self-control. Samson was a guy who did whatever he wanted whenever he wanted to do it. He made promises to God that he didn’t keep. He made mistakes with others because he didn’t always control his emotions and actions. We need to learn self-control too. God wants to see that we make good decisions, like obeying our parents, treating others with kindness, and always telling the truth. Just like God gave Samson strength, He gives us the strength to exercise self control: to say “yes” to what honors Him and “no” to what doesn’t.

TEACHER TIPS

Allow each child to share. The point: help kids understand that physical training and practice is necessary for improving in a sport. We need to have that same effort in training for God so that we can make good choices that honor and please Him.

Answer: Training for godliness means doing things that encourage you to follow God’s way. Things like reading your Bible, choosing to obey what it says, and listening to the Holy Spirit. Training in godliness is a lot like training in sports. It takes a lot of hard work, practice, and patience. And that takes self-control. Even though Samson was a Bible hero, he struggled with exercising self-control. He made some dumb decisions that ultimately distracted him from accomplishing the goals God had for him. He was big and strong, but he forgot to train for godliness. But, just like he did with Samson, God gives us the strength we need to overcome our mistakes and live for Him.

Bonus Questions:

Have you ever practiced really hard for something? Did the practice help you get better? What happens when we don’t practice?

This isn’t a trick question. Fruit comes from trees. The fruit of the Spirit comes from the Spirit! Make sure the kids know that the Holy Spirit is God himself. That means the fruit (emphasize “self-control” for today’s lesson) comes from God himself. He gives us the strength to control ourselves and make good choices.
Option #1

How Strong Are You Balloon Pop
This is a fun game to quiz knowledge with a little "pop". Place one word of the memory verse in a balloon (template 5B). Make two sets. Tape two squares at one end of the room and place the balloons in it. Create two teams. Line kids up at the opposite end of the room. Have each person run to the square, grab a balloon, and sit to pop it. Have them place the word from the balloon on the floor and run back to slap the hand of the next person in line. Continue until all the balloons are popped. Then, have teams put the words in order to build the memory verse. Fastest team wins.

Supplies needed
- strips of paper with one word from memory verse, 2 sets (template 05B)
- balloons
- tape

Option #2

Samson’s Charades
Play it just as the original, only with words from the lesson. Divide the class into teams (2 teams if 10 or less and 3 teams if 11 or more). Write the words (see below) on strips of paper and place in a bucket. Each person will have a chance to act out a word. If their team guesses right in 60 sec or less, they get a point. The team that ends up with the most points wins.
